

Reading Strategies

Monitoring Comprehension

How well do you understand what you have just read?

Questioning

What do you ask yourself as you read?

Making Connections

How does the story relate to your life, another book, or the world?

Determining Importance

What details are most important in understanding the total text?

Visualizing

What images come to mind as you are reading?

Making Inferences

What conclusions can you draw from what you have read?

Synthesizing

What is the most important idea or message that the text is conveying?